Dear Susan,

Proposed Timetable for Progressing the Inquiry (ref A99/2).
Response of the Aviation Industry Association of New Zealand (Inc).

Thank you for your letter of 6 August 1999 enclosing the Commission's Proposed Timetable for Progressing the Inquiry.

We note that the terms of reference of the inquiry remain unchanged, and that the date for the Commission's report to the Minister has been extended to 1 August 2002, with similar extensions to the timetable for earlier steps in the process, initial submissions now being due by 1 February 2002.

AIA agrees that the new timetable will allow time for interested parties to consider the effects of the Airport Authorities (Airport Companies Information Disclosure) Regulations 1999, and looks forward to working with the Commission as the inquiry process proceeds.

Yours sincerely

Robert M Goldingay
