Dear Ms Bransgrove

RE: PRICE CONTROL STUDY OF AIRFIELD ACTIVITIES - PROCESS AND PRELIMINARY ISSUES

Thank you for your letter of 4 June 1998 addressed to Craig Sinclair, regarding the Commerce Commission's Price Control Study on Airfield Activities, at Auckland, Wellington and Christchurch Airports.

At this stage we do not have any specific comments to make on this matter.

However, we would like to be kept informed of developments, and, in particular, can you please provide us with copies of all preliminary submissions that you receive on process or other issues, or, alternatively, let us know as soon as those submissions are available via the Commission's website.

Please address all future correspondence on this matter to the undersigned.

I also attach my business card which gives my telephone and email contact details.

Yours sincerely
