Mobile Co-location Standard Terms Determination: Scoping workshop

As you will be aware, the Commission recently announced that it will launch a standard terms development processes to determine the non-price elements of the regulated mobile co-location service.

The Commission intends to conduct a scoping workshop in relation to this service to assist it in specifying:

- (a) the party or parties to provide a standard terms proposal (STP)
- (b) a reasonable period of time within which the access provider(s) must submit an STP; and
- (c) any additional requirements for the proposal(s).

The additional requirements in (c) above may have regard to any relevant matters (for example, the terms and conditions of any commercial agreement, regulated terms, or approved code for the service in New Zealand or overseas).

Venue

The workshop will be held on 31 January 2008 at the Commission's Conference Room, ground floor, 44-52 The Terrace, Wellington. The workshop will be recorded and a transcription posted on the Commission's website.
