Dear Bruce

TelstraClear Bitstream Application Consultation

I refer to your letter dated 20 September 2005. In your letter, Telecom requests that the Commission seek further submission on the pricing of the bitstream access service, and that failure to undertake further consultation in this regard would risk regulatory error and may give rise to judicial review.

The Commission is currently evaluating whether further consultation is required in respect of this application. Should further consultation be required, the Commission will advise accordingly.

Yours sincerely

Chris Abbott
