

AMENDED NOTICE OF INTENTION

AT 14 SEPTEMBER 2016

(Further amending the amended Notice of Intention dated 2 December 2015)

Input Methodologies Review

1. The purpose of this amended Notice of Intention is to further amend the amended Notice of Intention dated 2 December 2015,¹ to reflect updates to the timeline for completing the Input Methodologies Review (IM Review) in respect of three specific matters.
2. The scope of the IM review, as set out in the amended Notice of Intention dated 2 December 2015, remains unchanged. The timing remains unchanged except as specified below.
3. The Commission's June 2016 draft decisions package presented draft decisions on all input methodologies within the scope of the IM review except the input methodologies for:
 - a. the Transpower Incremental Rolling Incentive Scheme (IRIS) input methodology;
 - b. the input methodologies relating to CPP information requirements for gas; and
 - c. the related party transaction input methodologies.
4. While these areas are still within the scope of the IM review, we have not yet reached draft decisions on them.
5. In accordance with sections 52Y(3) and 52V(1) of the Act, this notice sets out in the table overleaf the revised timelines for reaching draft and final decisions on these input methodologies.

¹ <http://www.comcom.govt.nz/dmsdocument/13889>

Process		Indicative time frame
1.	Draft decision on Transpower IRIS IM	Q1 2017
2.	Draft decision on related party transactions provisions	Q2 2017
3.	Final decision on Transpower IRIS IM	Q2 2017
4.	Draft decision on CPP information requirements for gas pipeline businesses	Q3 2017
5.	Final decision on related party transactions provisions	Q4 2017
6.	Final decision on CPP information requirements for gas pipeline businesses	Q4 2017

Further detail on the Commission's process for the IM review is provided in the process update paper, also published today. Regular updates on the process, including process refinements will also be published on the Commerce Commission's website <http://www.comcom.govt.nz>.